

COOMERA
ANGLICAN
COLLEGE

22 July 2019

Dear Parents/Guardians

The theme of Book Week for 2019 is 'Reading is my Secret Power' and we invite students, grandparents and special friends to participate this year, however, our focus is a little different. Students will shortly receive an invitation to personalise for their grandparents.

We are encouraging students to design and create a superhero cape and to decorate this cape with their character strengths. The College's Flourishing Model could be used as the basis for this cape (see PASSMARC). Students might also wear a headpiece, arm bands or choose some other way to demonstrate their character 'superpowers'.

We understand that some of you may have already started to create your favourite book character costume, and if this is the case, I ask that you consider the character strengths that this book character might exhibit and include this in your costume too (no cape required). We will continue to go ahead with our Grandparents' Day Book Parade, as is our tradition on this day. In this way, we are connecting these Book Week costumes to the College's Flourishing Model while celebrating literacy, literature and a love of reading.

So your options for the 2019 Grandparents' Day Book Week Parade are:

- Continue to dress as a character from your favourite book
- Design and create a cape outlining your personal character strengths. This might include arm bands, headpiece etc (this could be worn with a costume or over the top of the sports uniform)
